Small Business Resources

Updated: 4.17.2020

COVID-19 has made it tough for small businesses to continue operations, leaving businesses looking for answers so they can keep their employees on the payroll and their doors open. MAC has assembled a multitude of resources that businesses can use to help bridge the gap financially or find much needed resources.

This information will be updated regularly as more resources become available for small businesses.

Small Business Administration (SBA) Economic Injury Disaster Loans

Excerpt: Loans are available for small businesses and nonprofit organizations. While terms will be established on a case-by-case basis, many will have a 30-year repayment term with first payments not due for up to 12 months. Businesses should expect to provide a tax transcript, financial statements, and a profit and loss statement. Interest rates will range from 2.75% to 3.75%.

Small Business Administration (SBA) Paycheck Protection Program

Excerpt: The Paycheck Protection Program is a loan designed to provide a direct incentive for small businesses to keep their workers on the payroll. SBA will forgive loans if all employees are kept on the payroll for eight weeks and the money is used for payroll, rent, mortgage interest, or utilities. The Paycheck Protection Program will be available through June 30, 2020.

U.S. Chamber Small Business Loans Guide

Excerpt: The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act allocated $350 billion to help small businesses keep workers employed amid the pandemic and economic downturn. Known as the Paycheck Protection Program, the initiative provides 100% federally guaranteed loans to small businesses. Importantly, these loans may be forgiven if borrowers maintain their payrolls during the crisis or restore their payrolls afterward. The administration soon will release more details including the list of lenders offering loans under the program. In the meantime, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce has issued this guide to help small businesses and self-employed individuals prepare to file for a loan.
