ATLANTA PROFILE

An aerial photograph of a city skyline during sunset. The sky is filled with soft, golden light and scattered clouds. In the foreground, a multi-level highway interchange with several ramps is visible, surrounded by green grass and trees. The middle ground is dominated by a dense cluster of modern skyscrapers with glass facades, some reflecting the warm light of the setting sun. A prominent white banner with the text "BUILT FOR BUSINESS" is superimposed across the center of the image.

BUILT FOR BUSINESS

Metro Atlanta, the global capital in the sunny Southeast, has always been built for business. The region's dramatic growth is carving a path to a sustainable future.

This top-tier destination competes on the world's stage and strives to be the best, most productive, most inclusive place to do business.

Across the metro Atlanta region you will find a diverse brain trust of talent with the in-demand skills to elevate your organization. A multicultural mecca that builds on its history as the torchbearer of the Civil Rights movement, today's metro Atlanta is prosperous, vibrant and welcoming.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

With the amenities of an international crossroads and lower cost of doing business than peer regions, Metro Atlanta was built for business. As the capital of the most business-friendly state in the country, this has always been a place where opportunity can become reality. One of the largest economies in the nation with a GDP of $422 billion, metro Atlanta's business community keeps rising.

Home to headquarters of 31 of America's largest corporations (Fortune 1000), including 17 ranked in the elite Fortune 500, as well as more than 200 of the nation's fastest-growing private companies (Inc. 5000), metro Atlanta is a premier location for the headquarters of companies across industries. The region has also attracted more than 30 corporate innovation centers.

Atlanta is a global business hub, home to nearly 1,000 international companies. Flights from Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport, the busiest and most efficient airport in the world, travel nonstop to 70 international and 150 domestic destinations. 30+ bi-national Chambers of Commerce are located in the region, in addition to more than 60 Consular Offices, 26 of which are Consuls General representing their countries as posted diplomats in Atlanta.

A business-friendly environment and low cost of doing business are key elements for why companies choose metro Atlanta. Area Development ranked Georgia the #1 state for doing business for the last nine years (2014-2022).

PRE-K THROUGH 12TH GRADE

Metro Atlanta's talent pipeline is robust. More than one million students are served through its 37 public school systems, including 1,100 elementary, middle and high schools. Metro Atlanta is also home to approximately 350 private schools.

Georgia offers free pre-K classes for four-year-old children throughout the state. The pre-K program is a lottery-funded educational program.

English-as-a-Second Language courses are available in every public school district.

Metro Atlanta has several immersion schools, both public/charter and private, that teach in languages other than English, including Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese and Spanish.

There are 87 IB World Schools in Georgia. These authorized schools offer one or more International Baccalaureate programs of education.

Schools in the metro area offer a wide variety of education for children with special needs. Supported by unique organizations like the Marcus Autism Center and the Atlanta Speech School, public and private schools offer access to a variety of educational resources.

HIGHER EDUCATION

A greenhouse for smart, skilled talent, metro Atlanta has more than 295,000 students enrolled in 70+ two- and four-year college and university campuses in the metro Atlanta/Athens area. Businesses in the region benefit from a large and thriving pipeline of home-grown talent. Approximately 60,500 degrees are awarded in the metro Atlanta/Athens area annually (associate's, bachelor's, master's and doctorate).

Approximately 25% of Georgia State University's enrollment is first-generation college students, and it is the #1 public or nonprofit university in the U.S. to confer undergraduate degrees to Black students.

EDUCATION AND TALENT

The Georgia Institute of Technology leads the nation in the number of engineering bachelor's degrees awarded and is ranked #1 in the nation for its undergraduate Aerospace Engineering and Industrial Engineering programs. All of the school's graduate engineering programs rank in the top 10. The school awards more engineering bachelor's degrees to minorities and women than any other school in the country.

Emory University is ranked among the top national universities. Emory's nursing school is ranked #2 in the country and its graduate public health program is #4. This private university includes a top-performing School of Medicine, School of Law, and the Goizueta Business School.

Metro Atlanta is home to the Atlanta University Center (AUC) Consortium, the world's oldest and largest association of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). The AUC is comprised of four member institutions: Clark Atlanta University, Morehouse College, Morehouse School of Medicine and Spelman College. Spelman College is the #1 HBCU in the nation.

The HOPE Scholarship and HOPE Grants are funds available for qualified Georgia residents that provide assistance towards the cost of tuition at eligible public and private colleges and universities.

HOPE Career Grants waive tuition for qualified students enrolling in specific high-demand fields in Georgia's Technical Colleges, including 18 programs of study like automotive technology, nursing, health science, commercial truck driving and movie production set design.

GEORGIA STATE CAPITOL

GOVERNMENT

Atlanta is the capital city of the state of Georgia. One of the most recognizable features of the downtown Atlanta skyline is the gold-domed state capitol.

The 29 counties that make up metro Atlanta are individually governed by boards of commissioners, city councils and mayors.

Atlanta's symbol is the phoenix, the legendary bird of Egyptian mythology, representing Atlanta's rise from the ashes of the Civil War. The seal of the city bears the phoenix and the Latin term "Re-surgens," which means "rising again."

TAXES

Georgia's tax structure is among the most stable in the country, with a consistent AAA bond rating from all three agencies. Georgia's corporate income tax rate is 5.75% (single factor sales tax apportionment). In the metro Atlanta region of 29 counties, the total (state and local) sales tax rate ranges from 6% (Cherokee, Cobb and Gwinnett counties) to 8.9% (City of Atlanta in Fulton and DeKalb counties).

Georgia's individual income tax rate is a graduated tax based on an individual's federal adjusted gross income. The tax rate ranges from 1% to 5.75% based on six income brackets.

Property tax rates (millage rates) are set locally by each county and city. Real and personal property are assessed at 40% of fair market value.

HEALTH CARE

Metro Atlanta offers access to an extensive healthcare system with more than 100 hospitals, 88,000 hospital workers, and 28,000 nurses and nurse practitioners. The system includes one Level 1 Trauma Center, three Level 2, four Level 3, three Level 4, two Pediatric Trauma Centers and one Designated Burn Center.

A few of Metro Atlanta's top-ranked medical facilities include:

Shepherd Center | Ranked #8 in the nation and specializing in medical treatment, research and rehabilitation for people with spinal cord injury and stroke, Atlanta's Shepherd Center is a private, not-for-profit hospital.

Children's Healthcare of Atlanta | CHOA's pediatric research program is ranked #1 for National Institute of Health funding among pediatric departments nationwide.

Northside Hospital | The nation's leader in maternity services, Northside Hospital delivers more babies a year than any other hospital in the country and was recently designated as a Level IV Maternal Center.

In addition to high-quality patient care facilities, metro Atlanta is home to renowned medical research organizations like the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Center for Global Health Innovation.

TRANSPORTATION

With unparalleled connectivity, Atlanta is home to the world's busiest and most efficient airport, plus the planes, trucks, trains and ports to keep business moving swiftly.

AIR CARGO

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport is served by more than 20 all-cargo air carriers. Nearly 730,000 metric tons of cargo passed through ATL in 2022.

AIR SERVICE

ATL, the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport, is a true global leader and one of the most connected airports on the planet. The single busiest and most efficient airport in the world, its five runways serve more than 110 million passengers a year. More than 80% of U.S. metros are within a two-hour flight from Atlanta.

HIGHWAYS

Three major highways (I-75, I-85, I-20) converge near Atlanta's central business district. The perimeter highway (I-285) circles the city in a 62.7-mile loop. Georgia 400 is a six-lane highway providing yet another route to the city via north metro Atlanta. Atlanta's major highways contain High Occupancy Vehicle (HOV) and High Occupancy Toll (HOT) lanes, which decrease drive times during peak hours and are free-of-charge to electric vehicles.

RAIL

Abundant rail service makes metro Atlanta the rail center of the Southeast.

More than 4,600 railroad miles in Georgia – the largest intermodal hub in the region. Served by two class-one railroads (CSX and Norfolk Southern) and over 20 short-line companies.

INLAND PORTS

Georgia currently hosts two inland port facilities with a third planned. The model allows containers to be trucked for shorter distances and staged at an intermodal yard, where they are loaded onto trains moving hundreds of containers in a single trip.

OCEAN

The Port of Savannah, located 250 miles from Atlanta, is the largest and fastest-growing single-container terminal in North America.

The Port of Brunswick, located 300 miles from Atlanta, is the second-busiest port in the U.S. for import and export of Ro/Ro (Roll-On/Roll-Off) vehicle cargo.

MASS TRANSIT

MARTA is the region's heavy rail and bus service, providing service to 1.7 million traveler. Every weekday, 500,000 people are transported by MARTA. Service is available at 38 rail stations, including direct access in the Hartsfield-Jackson airport and along 101 bus routes covering 1,439 miles. Other rapid bus services, including Cobb County Transit and Gwinnett County Transit, connect to MARTA.

INMAN YARD

Metro Atlanta is the epicenter of the Southeast. Named the Best Place to Live in the U.S. by Money Magazine for 2022-2023, Atlanta attracts people from every corner of the globe. The city's culture is as rich and diverse as our population, with a legacy built by our country's Civil Rights leaders. A culinary cornucopia and center for music and film production, our world-class stadiums regularly attract events like the Super Bowl and the World Cup. And a temperate climate means we enjoy year-round sunshine to explore our City in a Forest, or the region's lakes, mountains and trails.
